

Let me warn you: this is not a typical Bible study guide! Here, you will need to use your imagination and place yourself in the characters' shoes. As you do, you will be faced with situations that might be scary and confusing. Your mission is to grasp the Christian symbolism and opportunities for understanding and relate them to your life's journey. Those that do will thrive!

In 1930s rural Alabama, Cat Luker accepts a dare to enter the dark and forbidden swamp nearby and knock on the door of the Swamp Witch, a figure that had been thought to only reside in children's nightmares. But what starts as a dare turns into a mission when Cat realizes that the Swamp Witch is very real—a sinister force in a devilish realm that extends far beyond her imagination. In fact, the Swamp Witch, in a pact with other dark forces, has been planning to destroy Cat's hometown of Aimwell, Alabama, the local church, and their "precious Christmas" for a very long time.

A Journey to the Light takes you on a parallel adventure of faith and friendship with Cat and her best friends, Jane Alice and Little Preacher, who follow her lead through a series of mounting challenges to thwart the Swamp Witch's plans. Without their parents' knowledge, they resolve to stop her—no matter what. A secret alliance is formed.

Cat, Little Preacher, and Jane Alice felt like friends by the time I finished the book. It was an amazing adventure!

Some memories are fleeting while others are chiseled in stone. Values are fleeting these days, and the ones you pray your children hold close and remember are being pulverized to dust by our current culture. Our children need a sound foundation in this shifting world, and it is waiting for them in Aimwell. This book and companion Bible Study Guide provides a hard link to the past and the values of the Greatest Generation. Don't let your children miss it! Seek God!

G.B.SOLLIE

The genesis of this book was a request from my granddaughter to tell stories about my parents as young children. I was thankful and wanted to share the adventures while weaving in the Christian values my parents embraced. The stories were so popular with my grandkids that they would hop in the car and yell "story" to hear the next one each morning as I drove them to school. I had the idea to record them and did so over a period of two years, laying the groundwork for the book series.
